Port Arthur's Name.
The connection that exists between Port Arthur and a peaceful village in Devonshire is little known, says the St. James Gazette. Half a century ago the rector of Atherington was the Rev. James Arthur, the father of Lieutenant W. Arthur, R. N., and great-uncle of the present rector, the Rev. W. W. Arthur, and Lieutenant Arthur was somewhere about 1859 sent in command of the gunboat Albatross into Chinese waters. The Albatross was attached to a surveying expedition prior to the landing made by the English and French in 1860, and when the flag-ship Acton was disabled Lieutenant Arthur towed her into the then unnamed harbor, which was thenceforth known as Port Arthur. Lieutenant Arthur afterward attained the rank of rear admiral.

The Smiths at Peapack.
Three thousand or more Smiths recently gathered at Peapack, N. J., to celebrate the annual reunion of that famous family in New Jersey. Every county in the state was represented, and there were visiting Smiths from many other states. The custom of holding the family reunions was inaugurated in 1800.

A RIVER FARM, containing 500 acres, located half way between Plainfield and Mansfield, known as the Webster Haskins farm. This is one of the best farms in Washington county and must be sold to settle the estate. There are three large barns and a good two-story house. The barns need some repairs. The stables will tie up sixty head of cattle. The farm will keep seventy-five cows and teams to carry on the place summer and winter. Plenty of wood. Sugar orchard of about 1200 trees. About 100,000 feet of saw timber. Apple orchard of grafted fruit. Never failing water at house and barns. Both house and barns are lighted by electricity on the New England and People's telephone line. Rural delivery about to be established. Only 3 1-2 miles from three good creameries.
